Linn-Mar Names New Principals

The Linn-Mar Community School District is proud to announce two new elementary principals for the 2022-23 school year!

LINN-MAR HIRES NEW PRINCIPAL

NOVAK ELEMENTARY

Sara Hovden

Sara Hovden will become the new principal at Novak Elementary. She will replace Carol O'Donnell who is retiring at the end of the current school year.

LINN-MAR HIRES NEW PRINCIPAL

WESTFIELD ELEMENTARY

Theresa Kirkman

Theresa Kirkman will be the new principal at Westfield Elementary. She will replace Ed Rogers who is retiring at the end of the current school year.

The district wants to thank Ed and Carol for their commitment, dedication, and service to the Linn-Mar community and wish them the very best in retirement. The new principals will work with the current administrators in the coming months to allow for smooth transitions. Sara and Theresa will officially begin their new positions on July 1st, pending board approval.

1950

1955

1960

The answer to this question will be featured in the next newsletter.

Previous e-newsletter trivia answer:

Q: Who broke the wrestling school record for pins this year? A record that lasted nearly 20 years!

A: Kane Naaktgeboren broke the school record for most falls (pins) in a single season! With his 31st fall, Kane surpassed the previous record of 30 held by Jay Borschel (2004), Matt McDonough (2008), and Alijah Jeffery (2013). He finished his Sophomore season with 38 pins and 3rd place at 132 pounds.

His brother, Tate Naaktgeboren, won his second state title becoming the 3rd multi-State Champion in LM Wrestling program history, joining Jay Borschel and Matt McDonough. The team placed 4th in class 3A, the first state duals semifinals appearance since 2002.
