Communication Test

Linn-Mar Community School District is conducting a test with the district's alert communication software. The district will send a test email and text to parents and staff using the alert communication system at 12:30pm on Monday, December 19th, 2022.

Parents, if you do not receive this email or text, please update your contact information in PowerSchool. If you need assistance, please call your buildings' secretary as soon as possible.

We will send out a second test on Thursday, December 22nd at 12:30pm to ensure contact information has been updated/added and all parents and staff are able to receive alert communication messages such as winter weather delays/closures.
