WE ARE LINN-MAR

Celebrating 100 Days of School

It's quite an accomplishment, reaching 100 of anything! Elementary schools across the district use the 100th day of school as a celebration to reflect on everything they've accomplished this year!

The "100 theme" is also seen as a timely teachable moment for our youngest learners. The staff from Westfield Elementary recently hired Grundmeyer Leader Services to support the search for a new district superintendent. Your feedback regarding what "desired qualifications" are most important for this position will ensure the new hire is a good fit for both the school district and communities. Take the Superintendent Survey.

Award Winning Artwork

The works of two Linn-Mar student artists have been selected for national judging in the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards.

The piece featured on the left below, "If These Walls Could Talk" was created by Eysen Pollard. "Reminiscence" (lower right) is the work of Diya Patel. Both works received Gold Key Honors at Regional Competition. Six other Linn-Mar entries received Silver Key Recognition another earned Honorable Mention.

College Letter of Intent Signing Day

A group of eight Linn-Mar High School student-athletes took center stage at the Winter College Letter of Intent Signing Ceremony. It was held in the high school's South Commons.

Students Collect 95 Blankets for Homeless Shelter

A student from Boulder Peak Intermediate had an idea to start a blanket drive.

He discussed it with his teacher, Ms. Mulherin, who loved the idea and encouraged him to organize a plan and present it to the principal, Mr. Ludwig.

With the okay from the office, a group of students organized a promotional campaign.
