From The Principal....

Dear Indian Creek Families,

We are settling into a great routine after the winter break and students are hard at work in the classrooms. The students seem to soar, and we see lots of academic growth in these winter months! We ask that you keep encouraging 20 minutes of reading every day in your home.

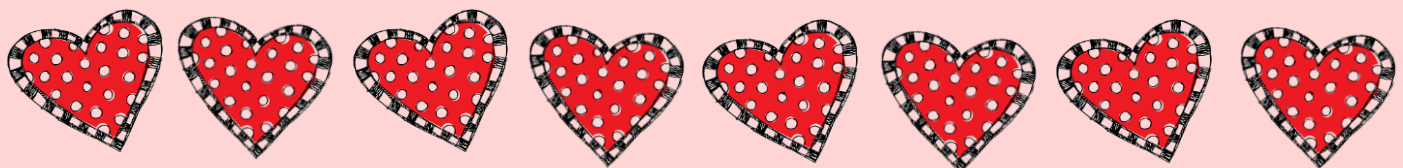

The month of February brings a few special events to keep us all excited. We celebrated our 100th day of school with fun activities in the classroom as well as building wide. Black History Month is an annual celebration of achievements by black Americans in US history. Students have a Valentine's exchange on Wednesday, February 14th. Plus, we recognize President's Day this month.

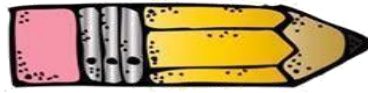

Parent/Teacher conferences will be held the first week of March. We value our partnership with every family and want to thank you in advance for your attendance at your child's conference. It is so very important that families and educators work closely together to communicate about student progress in school. We want the children to see that we are all behind them in their educational journey and that we are a united team working together to enhance their learning.

Please make sure you check the calendar as we have some days off in February and March as well as the first and fourth-grade concert, and third-grade swimming.

Sincerely,

Kelly Kretschmar

PBIS

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports

We are Respectful,
We are Responsible,
We are Ready,
We Care at Indian Creek!

The students continue to show our School-Wide PBIS Expectations every day. We are so proud of the many Thank You Notes that are earned every day. During January, we celebrated with Cocoa by Candlelight. Every student was able to enjoy a cup of hot chocolate, music and a candlelit lunchroom. A special thank you to our Indian Creek PTO for supporting this celebration!

As winter continues, we continue to focus on our School-Wide Expectations at Winter Recess. Outdoor recess with snow brings new expectations, new activities and new experiences. We've worked hard to practice snow building manners; building, adding on to and not destroying snow sculptures. We also talk a lot about responsibly with snow gear: putting on, cleaning up and always checking the lost and found.

PBIS at Home: National Random Acts of Kindness Day is February 17th, practice showing kindness throughout the day. Your kindness could be shown towards adults, friends, and community members in a variety of ways: holding doors open, giving compliments, encouraging a friend, or sharing a smile. Practice kindness and make it the new norm!

Since returning from winter break, we have been full steam ahead on our Character Strong traits. While January was very inconsistent for all of us, students and staff at Indian Creek tried our best to persevere and handle all the challenges that came our way. In January our all grade levels focused on the character trait of perseverance. Each grade level had a different area of focus when it came to perseverance which included, following directions, focusing and ignoring distractions, being engaged in their learning, being a flexible thinker and staying organized. Students learned the importance of those skills for their learning here at school, but also how they can take this learning into their lives outside of school.

Over the next few months we will be learning the traits of honesty and cooperation. As we have done for our previous traits, students will continue to focus on learning more about these words over the course of the next 8 weeks (4 weeks for honesty and 4 weeks for cooperation) not only with me in guidance, but also with their classroom teacher. My hope is that the learning they are doing here at school on all these traits is also transferring over and you as parents are seeing your students display them at home too.

It's that time of year where the snow is melting but you never know when that frigid cold weather will creep back in!

Indian Creek's lost and found is starting to fill up again! Please remember to put your child's initials or name on their coats, sweatshirts, gloves, hats, water bottles and (believe it or not) boots! We try very hard to find the owners to any lost clothing, gear, books and accessories but it makes it very difficult when items aren't labeled.

In addition to checking every item for a name, occasionally, we rotate lost items on display in the lunchroom as well as laying all items out neatly for students to walk by and hopefully recognize any lost items.

Please remind your child(ren) to check out the lost and found weekly!
